

SERENADE PROMISES FINE PERFORMANCE

There is no question about the coming production of "The Serenade" being a hit, if from getting a line on it one may judge. Last Saturday evening the entire score was gone through, including dialogue, stage business and orchestra, and a most creditable rehearsal was had. No part yet taken in amateur operas by Mrs. Lawrence Crook has been so well suited to her powers as Dolores, the ward of the Duke of Santa Cruz. Rehearsals have shown what a genuine success is in store for this sweet singer. It is doubtful if anyone else could have been secured who could play it with such vivacity and sprightliness as Mrs. Crook, and with her beauty, figure and carriage, she should make a very strong impression.

A find of equal importance was made in securing Miss Marion Bell, a newcomer to Honolulu. She is to play Yvonne, and with her beautiful dramatic soprano voice she will, of course, be a very agreeable surprise to her audience, as few have heard her sing. She has about the heaviest part in the cast, and goes through it all with grace and ease.

The box office opens at nine o'clock this morning at Wall, Nichols Co., and at an early hour this morning one of the messenger service could be seen asleep on his post awaiting his chance to fill the orders for his customers. An unprecedented sale is expected.

The complete cast as given below assures us of the success predicted:

Alvarado.....Mr. Hugo Herzer
Romero.....Mr. J. Hastings Howland
